Selling the truth in these days is just as essential as telling the truth.

In these days of soaring prices only the price of Liberty has not changed. It is the same today as it was in '61.

It is much better to think proudly of what we are going to do tomorrow — than to dwell fondly on what we have done today.

Why not be polite at home?
Why not use freely the golden coin of courtesy? How sweet they sound, those little words, "thank you," or you are very kind." Doubly, yes, trebly sweet, from the lips we love, when heart smiles makes the the eyes sparkle with the clear light of affection.

There is food for thought in the story that is told of a young lad, who for the first time accompanied his father to a public dinner. The waiter ask him, "what will you take to drink?"
Hesitating for a moment, he replied, "I'll take what father takes." The answer reached his father's ear, and instantly the full responsibility of his position flashed upon him. In a moment his decision was made; and in tones tremulous with emotion, and to the astonishment of those who knew him, he said, "Waiter I'll take water."

MRS. FANNIE CHILDRESS DIES FROM IN- JURY RECEIVED WHEN HORSE SHE WAS DRIVING RAN AWAY.

Mrs. Fannie Childress, wife of Jim Childress, who resides near Corinth, on Flynn's creek, died at the home of her parents, J. T.
West and wife, Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock, following injuries received Saturday morning, when the horse she was driving ran away. Mrs. Child-dress and baby and her little nephew were returning home from a visit to her father's, when the tragedy occurred, the children escaped injury. Mrs. Child-dress sustained a broken leg, from which blood poison set up, causing her death. She was 35 years old and a member of the Church of Christ.

Besides her husband and five small children, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.
T. West, two sisters, Mrs. Joda Robbinson and Mrs. Pleas Tase, of Kentucky, eight brothers; Lee Jim, Henry and Mart, of California, Doaksey, Joda, George and

Young Men and Style

Did you ever size up the average young man of this county when he is dressed up. His clothes appearance proves that he knows style. He may not be able to describe style to you but he picks it successfully.

One reason is that chooses from a nationally known line, Styleplus.

He knows that Styleplus never fails him in styles of distinction, all-wool fabrics, dependable tailoring. The guarantee in the pocket, the Styleplus label, the sealed sleeve ticket that tells the price—all spell satisfaction to him.

He know America's known priced clothes before he come into this store. That's why he likes to buy and why we like to sell Styleplus. Buy now. New assortment just arrived.
